YoungArts at Baxter St at the Camera Club

YoungArts and Baxter St at the Camera Club of New York (CCNY) have partnered to offer a two-month Workspace Residency at Baxter St at CCNY to one YoungArts alumna/us per year. This residency offers a lens-based artist much-needed workspace in New York City as well as a solo exhibition at the end of the residency. As a resident of this program, the selected YoungArts alumna/us will gain hands on experience, be counseled and supported by specialists in their field of study and work closely with Baxter St. advisors. Residencies will take place in April.

Benefits of the Workspace Residency

- Workspace: the Workspace Resident shall receive one month of free access to B&W and Color darkrooms as well as mentoring sessions with 2-3 Art Advisory Committee members.
- Stipend: the Workspace Resident shall receive a stipend of $3,000 USD.
- Exhibition: The Workspace Resident shall present a solo exhibition at Baxter St at CCNY following the term of residency, with additional funding (up to $7,000) to produce and mount their show. Exhibition shall remain up for two weeks and Workspace Resident shall be available for associated PR and public events.

Eligibility & Selection Process

All YoungArts alumni artists currently residing in New York City who are working in photography or lens-based art are eligible to apply. Please note that living accommodations are not provided and Workspace Residents must reside in New York City for the duration of the residency. Students must have completed their studies on or before January 1st in order to be eligible to apply. A jury of lens-based professionals will consider all eligible applications.

Please consult youngartspost.org for dates and application details.
